The image shows a crossword puzzle grid. In the top-left corner, there is a photograph of a brown, boxy train car on tracks, with mountains and a lake in the background. The grid is 15 columns wide and 15 rows high. Black squares are placed in various positions to define the puzzle. Small black arrows are placed in the white squares to indicate the starting point and direction of the words. For example, in the first row, arrows point down in columns 2, 4, 6, 8, and 10. In the second row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 3. In the third row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the fourth row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 3. In the fifth row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the sixth row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the seventh row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the eighth row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the ninth row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the tenth row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2. In the eleventh row, an arrow points right in column 1, and an arrow points down in column 2.
