The image shows a crossword puzzle grid. In the top-left corner, there is a photograph of a small, grey, fluffy baby monkey being held in a person's hand. The grid is composed of black and white squares. Starting arrows are placed in the white squares to indicate the beginning of words. Some arrows point down, some point right, and some point left. The grid is 10 columns wide and 12 rows high. The top-left cell is occupied by the monkey photo. The grid contains several starting points for words, with arrows pointing in various directions.
