The image shows a crossword puzzle grid. In the top-left corner, there is a photograph of a purple iris flower with yellow markings on its petals. The grid is composed of black and white squares. Small black arrows are placed in the corners of the starting squares for words, indicating the direction of the word. The number 39 is printed in the center of a square in the 6th row and 4th column. The grid is 12 columns wide and 14 rows high.
