The crossword puzzle grid is 12 columns wide and 12 rows high. The top-left corner (rows 1-4, columns 1-4) contains a photograph of the Empire State Building at night, illuminated and viewed from a high angle across the Hudson River. The rest of the grid is a standard crossword puzzle layout with black squares and white squares. The word 'CNY' is placed in the grid at row 5, column 6. Other words are indicated by arrows but are not fully legible.
