

Two crossword puzzles are presented on a grid. The first puzzle, labeled '1', features a photograph of two striped skunks on the left side of the grid. The second puzzle, labeled '2', features a photograph of a koala and its joey on a tree branch on the right side of the grid. The crossword grid contains various starting points for words, indicated by small black triangles pointing in the direction of the word.

"

"

