

"

"

A crossword puzzle grid is shown. The top-left corner features a red square containing a spear, with a small white box with the number '1' in the bottom-left corner. The bottom-right corner features a red square containing a sword, with a small white box with the number '2' in the bottom-right corner. The grid is composed of white squares with black borders. Some squares contain small black arrows indicating the direction of the words. A small number '100' is visible in one of the grid squares.

"

"

