The image shows a crossword puzzle grid. On the left side, there is a photograph of a Native American woman wearing a traditional feathered headdress and a beaded necklace. The grid is composed of white squares for letters and black squares for empty space. Small black triangles are placed at the intersections of the grid lines to indicate the starting points for words. The grid is 15 columns wide and 15 rows high. The photograph occupies the first four columns and the first five rows of the grid.
