A crossword puzzle grid consisting of 13 rows and 13 columns. The grid is partially filled with black squares, and small black triangles indicate the starting points for words. On the left side of the grid, there is a photograph of a canal with a row of trees on the left bank and a grassy bank on the right. The photograph is 4 rows high and 6 columns wide, starting from the 7th row and 1st column of the grid.
