A crossword puzzle grid is shown. The top-left corner features a photograph of a bright yellow sunflower with a dark brown center. The grid is composed of black and white squares. In the top-right section of the grid, the text "1943-" is placed within a white square. Small black arrows are positioned at the intersections of the grid lines to indicate the starting points and directions for the words. The grid is approximately 12 columns wide and 15 rows high.
