The crossword puzzle grid is 12 columns wide and 14 rows high. It features two images and two starting numbers:

- Image 1: A man with a beard, wearing orange robes, sits on a grassy bank by a lake with his hands raised in a meditative gesture. A black circle with the number "1" is in the top-left corner of the grid, indicating the start of a vertical word.
- Image 2: A woman in a pink leotard performs a handstand on a rock. A black circle with the number "2" is in the bottom-right corner of the grid, indicating the start of a horizontal word.
- Grid Details: The grid is filled with small black arrows pointing in various directions (up, down, left, right, and diagonally) to indicate the start and direction of words to be placed.
